Odd Postoffice Names.

Kentucky is said to hold the record of all the States in the Union for towns with odd and unusual names, and judging from some of these names, which were discovered by the stenographers at the democratic State campaign headquarters this record seems to be well established and deserved. One of the stenographers, as she came to an unusual name, would write it down and the resulting list was something that one seldom sees and would hardly be believed, yet the official gazetteer of the postoffice gives the names and is the authority cited. During the campaign letters were sent to persons in every one of the towns which are on the list.

Eden, which is in Butler county, should properly come first in the list of towns, and immediately after it would logically come Adam, which is in Lawrence county. Eve is in Greene county and is a promising place, although small. Cain's store is in Pulaski, and this is the first mention of the way in which the first born to woman earned his livelihood after the ejection from the garden. Abel, the second born, is in Laurel county. So much for the beginning. Having gotten fairly started in the list, the following curious connection in names is to be noticed:

Happiness is peculiarly connected with some of the towns, at least as far as the names go, even if the connections do not go further. One ought certainly to be happy in Bliss, which is in Adair county, or in Joy, in Livingston county, and one certainly would not be sad if he lived in Jolly, Daviess county. On the other hand, one would not derive much pleasure from existing in a town which travels under the name of Blood. Blood is in Calloway county, and is said to be an exceedingly peaceable little city.

Caution, Clay county, may possibly be well named if that county's reputation that it was best to proceed circumspectly be correct. The inhabitants of Angel, Whitley county, should certainly have good dispositions as well as those who live in Halo, Logan county, or Sugar, Calloway county. Sweet, in Bath county, is another town which ought to be productive of good living. In contrast with these comes Ice, in Letcher county, and Snow, in Clinton county. These two places are not in it with Summer Shade, which is in Metcalfe county, as that is a tolerably warm place. Pomp, in Morgan county, has its opposite in Poverty, which is in McLean county. The man who named Alone, in Metcalfe county, must have been tired and lonesome when he fixed this sad name to it.

Awe, in Lewis county, suggests a subdued feeling, while Faith, in McLean county, and Hope, in Montgomery county, give one a sense of rest and confidence. If one does not get all one wants there, one can still go to Balm, in Fleming county, and there find relief. Cash, in Hardin county, and Cole in Pulaski county, suggest wealth, although they are not now towns in which capitalists reside. Coy, in Marshall county, and Cyclone, in Monroe county, reach the opposite extremes, while Jamboree, Pike county, certainly suggests a hilarious time. The following are some of the other names which are out of the ordinary:

Alpha, Clinton county; Backbone, in Elliott county; Bar, Henry county; Barefoot, Nicholas county; Bet, Carter county; Blaze, Morgan county; Bruin, Elliott county; Bud, Wayne county; Bug, Hickman county; Buzzard, Pulaski county; Bush, Laurel county; Nancy, Pulaski county; Choice, Clay county; Coal, Johnson county; Doorway, Owsley county; Firebrick, Lewis county; Sideview, Montgomery county; Fed, Floyd county; Freedom, Barren county; Stop, Grayson county; Walt, Wayne county, and O. K. and Jumbo, Lincoln county.

PERILS OF LAND AND SEA.

Capt. Willneff's Remarkable Escape shows what to do in time of Trouble.

For many years Capt. Willneff, says the Times, of Gloucester, Mass., was one of the best known seamen in the Gloucester Fleet. The catarrhal troubles which he suffered for 15 years made him dread the nights at sea being unable to lie down and sleep on account of the constant catarrhal dripping.

Captain Willneff went to different hospitals for treatment, but could get no lasting benefit. He constantly raised yellow and green phlegm and his trouble became so unbearable and nauseating that he was ashamed to go out in company. When despairing of ever getting relief, his wife purchased a Hyomei outfit for him, and trying it before going to bed, he enjoyed the first whole night's sleep for 10 years. Capt. Willneff says, "I have used less than two bottles of Hyomei and have been cured by the remedy." Hyomei kills the germs of catarrh and makes lasting and permanent cures. Penny sells Hyomei under his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not give quick relief.

To The Democracy of Lincoln County.

A short time after Isaac Herrin announced as a candidate for reelection to the office of jailer, I stated through the newspapers that he had agreed with me in 1901 that if I would not make a contest against him for the nomination, which I was about to do, and support him, that he would not run for office the second time, but would support me. In his published reply to this statement he admitted that he had agreed not to run, but claimed that the conditions of the agreement were different from what I had stated and that I had failed to comply with them. I am reliably informed that he has since denied on several occasions that he ever made an agreement of any kind. To settle the dispute between us as to whether or not an agreement was made and also the terms of it, I submit the following statement of three disinterested witnesses:

"On the 10th day of June, 1901, we heard the following agreement between Isaac Herrin and Dink Farmer, both of whom claimed to be the nominee for jailer: It was agreed that Farmer should make no further claim for the nomination and would help Herrin in his race, and that Herrin would not run for the office the second time, but would be for Farmer and help in his race. James C. Reid, Gus McCormack, M. S. Baughman."

The following statements show that I complied with my part of the contract: "We, the undersigned voters of Lincoln county, certify that Dink Farmer urged us to vote for Isaac Herrin at the November election, 1901: J. M. Pettus, W. G. Raines, W. G. Adams, Henry Kitts, J. T. Munday, C. W. Raines, W. J. Kirkpatrick, E. Brackett Isaac Brackett, Thomas F. Hall."

And also the following: "Dink Farmer and I rode through Lincoln county together several days before the November election, 1901, electioneering for the democratic ticket. During that time I heard him ask a great many men to vote for Isaac Herrin for jailer. Jas. Bursae."

As I stated in my former card, I counted the ballots on the day they were destroyed as the law requires, in the presence of the chairman of the county committee, and also of John Pepples and my son, Wallace Farmer, and there was a majority of seven votes in my favor, which shows that my claim to the nomination in 1901 was just. A mistake was made by some of the election officers in making the count on the day of the election.

I understand Mr. Herrin has said he will give a $100 reward if any one will find a paper signed by him agreeing not to run. I have never said he signed a paper, but if he will go before some officer and swear that he did not agree verbally not to run, I will withdraw from the race. DINK FARMER.

Democrats, Friends And Co-Workers.

I haven't been able to get to talk to you on account of illness, therefore I use this method of addressing you. I sincerely hope you will stand by my son, J. C. Lynn, in the democratic primary of Dec. 3rd. A vote for George W. DeBord for sheriff means a vote for my son and I trust that you will help him in this race. When you befriend him you befriend me, for true parents think more about their children's welfare than they do their own. I trust that you will be as true to him as I have been to the democratic party, the party that I love so well and which I believe the great common people of the country can derive the most benefit from. I am sure I will feel very grateful to you for your support of Mr. DeBord for sheriff and at the same time it will help my son, Jesse. Come out and help him get the half loaf he is striving to attain next Saturday, Dec. 3rd.

Sincerely yours,
J. E. LYNN.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Roderick, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by all druggists."

To the Democratic Voters of Lincoln County.

I see in Tuesday's issue of the INTERIOR JOURNAL that Mr. Wood comes out in a card stating that he and Mr. McCormack have formed a combine for the assessor's office and asks the democrats of the county to vote for them. He further states that all of his opponents have appointed deputies. I wish to say that that statement is utterly false. I have appointed no deputies, formed no combinations with any one, nor do I expect to. I also understand that another of my opponents is making an appeal to secret societies, such as the Odd Fellows, Maecabees, etc., claiming their support because he is a member. Now these organizations are all right and do a vast amount of good and I am heartily in sympathy with them and appeal to them and all good people on my own merits, upon which I expect to stand or fall. Whether successful or unsuccessful in this election, I shall always feel grateful to all those who have encouraged and supported me in this election. I can't think the democrats of this county will support a combine when one of the cardinal principles of the democratic party is opposition to trusts and combines. Respectfully,
D. C. ALLEN

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

In an interview sent out from Washington, discussing the proposed republican plan to reduce the South's representation, Senator McCreary said: "I do not believe there will be any such legislation. In my opinion it can not be pushed through both branches of Congress. There are many republicans who will oppose this kind of legislation. President Roosevelt has announced he will not be a candidate again. He is in a situation to uphold a pacific policy. After his great majorities in so many States, why should he not desire to be respected by all the people and give the whole country an administration which will be remembered with pleasure and admiration, not only in the North, but in the South."

THE Hanover Herald, published at Ashland, Va., says: "The Hanover circuit court, which convened Monday, continued in session until Wednesday evening. Judge Mason presided and heard one civil and several chancery cases, but no criminal case was presented." It frequently occurs that there are no criminal cases on the docket and there is rarely a prisoner in jail. The editor of this paper takes a little pride in stating that he first saw daylight in the good old county of Hanover, but claims no credit for the good state of affairs now existing there.

It seems strange that in a country like this such precautions should have been taken to protect his highness, Roosevelt. His trip to St. Louis was a spectacular event. The Pennsylvania railroad furnished him the finest coaches ever sent over the road. A pilot engine was sent ahead and a track walker for every mile of track to insure safety. This reads like the description of the trips the Czar of Russia occasionally makes in going about from place to place among his interesting and beloved subjects.

EDITOR ALBRIGHT, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, who was here Friday, showed himself to be a man of parts by running our engine while the last issue was being printed. A friend in need is a friend indeed and Brer. Albright proved himself to be of that class.

DISHEARTENED democrats should remember that in 1840 and in 1872 the democratic defeat was worse than this year. And at the next election they swept the country. Keep this in mind and take fresh courage.

LEGISLATION is threatened to prohibit football playing in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin, says a dispatch. The Kentucky Legislature should follow suit and call an extrasession to do so.

The contest of D. C. Edwards against Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter will be decided during the coming session of Congress. If Mr. Edwards should win he will get full salary for the two years, which will amount to $10,000.

A St. Louis dispatch says: Wm. J. Tyndall, the new school teacher Congressman-elect from the 14th Missouri district, made his first trip to the city to-day and rode in an elevator for the first time. Mr. Tyndall hails from the so-called backwoods.

Friends of Senator Charles W. Fairbanks are organizing a movement in Indiana to push him for the republican Presidential nomination in 1908. Later on they expect to form an organization in the East and South with a view to promoting his candidacy.

Official returns from all except two counties have been received at Frankfort. The missing counties are Harrison and Rockcastle. Taking the unofficial returns from those counties, the democratic plurality in Kentucky at the recent election was 11,876. The total vote was 428,729, a decrease of over 40,000 votes from the total cast for president in 1900.

To the Democrats of Lincoln County.

My fellow democrats we have come to the parting of the ways and are now confronted by a situation of serious moment to our party. To my mind we have the interest and welfare of the party arrayed against the interests of a hydra-headed combination organized to drive from the field of politics individual competition and men of merit. The question for you is, will you as democrats endorse and encourage such a halo scheme to secure a nomination at your hands, a scheme designed and formed to crush out individual competition and thrust upon you for your nominee one whose very conduct in this connection conclusively establishes his weakness and incapacity to win on his merits. Upon the same principle and for the same purpose every combination ever devised and that have been so boldly declared against by the democratic party and so vehemently denounced by its exponents rests and were formed, will you support them by your votes and denounce them with your voice? Will you for a moment tolerate such an enticing effort to secure a nomination from a party dedicated first and foremost to fair play and individual competition and a party that found its birth in opposition to combinations, trusts and monopolies?

Am afraid some of my opponents have lost sight of the final race and have become blinded to the interests of the party and are now seeking their promotion at the expense of the party. Heaven forbid that I should in this heated atmosphere of combinations and rumors of combinations, become so blinded to the interest of my party as to be willing to slap in the face its favored and time-honored doctrine "of unalterable opposition to combination of every kind and nature that tend to crush out individual competition." This I assure you, my fellow democrats, I have never condescended to consider. I entered this race for the nomination of our party for the office of sheriff, with the intention to run it through on my merits alone and I have conducted it thus, far strictly in accordance with such intention and I shall do so to the end, let the consequences be what they may. I have never suggested or even hinted at a combination with any of my opponents. Can those of them who have not combined already say as much? I submit this to you as the views of a democrat whose personal interest is subordinate to that of his party and appeal to all good democrats of the county, especially the young ones, to rise in their power and might and stamp this young hydra-headed combination with disapproval and undemocratic. Having confidence in the integrity, justice, fairness and honor of the democrats of Lincoln county I believe they will condemn this unfair and over reaching effort of some of my opponents to defeat me and will quite with me as the strongest and most available man in the race to win the nomination for sheriff at our primary next Saturday. Yours for democracy, T. J. BILL.

Owing to the busy season in our Jewelry Store I will have to discontinue my visits to Stanford until Spring.

Headaches, granulated lids, styes, pain in and around the eyes, nervousness, etc., are often the results of eye strains. We straighten crossed eyes without the knife, scissors or pain. We use no medicine in examination or treatment of the eyes, nor do we perform any surgical operation.

Results Count—Dr. Murray fitted glasses for me that have given most perfect satisfaction, more than any I ever had. The glasses fitted for my aunt, Mrs. Dudderar, of McKloney, are also perfectly satisfactory.

Luanna Gentry, Stanford, Ky.

The glasses you fitted for me two years ago have given me better satisfaction than any I ever had on my eyes. J. W. Rout, Stanford, Ky.

A LANCASTER special says that Mrs. Fannie Ball, who died at Hubble, mention of which was made last issue, left no living relative. She left a good farm of about 80 acres, which lawyers say will go to the Commonwealth of Kentucky.
DISCHARGED.—Charles McKinney, who killed Arthur Morgan on Fishing Creek, near Waynesburg, particulars of which were given last issue, was tried before Judge Bailey Saturday and discharged, it being clearly proven that the killing was accidental.
If you would spend this evening pleasantly and profitably you will hear Dr. James S. Kirtley's lecture at Odd Fellows' Hall. He is one of the very best lecturers on the platform and Rev. O. M. Huey, who knows him personally, says that he is as good a man as he is a lecturer.
It speaks well for Lincoln county that Mr. J. M. Alverson, who so ably represented Lincoln's interests at the last session of the Legislature and who performed such valuable service to the State by securing the passage of the Alverson vagrancy law and the Alverson Bill against the flourishing of pistols on railway trains, should be nominated without opposition for Representative in the next House. It is well for Lincoln that he is nominated by a unanimous vote. The State as well as the county has need of such men.—Louisville Times editorial.

THIS is Soap week at W. H. Higgins.
FIRE proof roof paint at W. N. Craig's, Pharmacist.
J. L. COFFEY won the pony raffled off by Mark Hardin.

A THREE-LINE advertisement in this paper sold $50 worth of Brown Leghorn chickens for Mr. G. A. Swinebroad, of the Hubble section.
DEPUTY SHERIFF D. W. JOHNSON, of Letcher county, was here yesterday to take Ben Mullins, who has been in jail here, to that county for trial for the murder of Elbert Mullins.
LEG BROKEN.—Walter W. Saunders fell the other night, shattering the bone of his injured leg. The accident was a very painful one and will likely give him much trouble.
FARM SOLD.—Albert Gooch sold his farm of 64 acres in the Turnersville section, to Frank Martin. Price private. Mr. Gooch is undecided as to where he will locate, but we hope he and his family will not leave Lincoln.

THE new democratic county committee met yesterday and elected James P. Holdam chairman and W. H. Shanks secretary. Three of the committee were absent. Both gentlemen have served before and their re-election proves that they have performed their thankless duties in a satisfactory manner.
TO MY FRIENDS AND DEMOCRATS GENERALLY.—I have withdrawn from the race for sheriff to take a position as deputy under Mr. George DeBord in the event of his nomination and election. Hence a vote for him will be a vote for me, and I earnestly ask my friends to cast their votes for him for sheriff. J. C. Lynn.
TO MY FRIENDS AND VOTERS OF LINCOLN COUNTY.—As my opponents have appointed deputies, and knowing that no one man can do the work, I have gone in with Mr. Emmett McCormack to win, and divide the office of assessor equally with him. A vote for him means a vote for me and it will be appreciated by both of us. If elected we will in person take your list. G. T. Wood.
MISS MARGARET LEWIS is preparing to give a delightful entertainment, very probably on the evening of Dec. 10th. She and her music class will be assisted by Mr. Henry Saxton, of Lexington, who is a virtuoso on the guitar, violin and cornet. Besides an interesting program of music on stringed instruments, a beautiful play will be given to be followed by the laughable sketch, "The Old Maid's Tea Party." Tickets will be sold by a number of little girls and you should by all means buy one for yourself and one or more for your sweetheart or friends.

HUBBLE NOMINATED.—The Committee for this Senatorial district, composed of Boyle, Garrard, Casey and Lincoln counties, met here Saturday and nominated Mr. R. L. Hubble for State Senator. The gentlemen present were Messrs. R. G. Evans, of Danville, Chas. F. Montgomery, of Liberty, and James F. Holdam, of this county. For some reason W. G. Gooch, of Garrard, was not present. After the nomination was made, the gentlemen repaired to the St. Asaph Hotel, where Mr. Hubble did the honors handsomely. The nominee is one of Lincoln county's wealthiest and best citizens and is a democrat in all the word implies. He has proven himself a decided success as a farmer and trader and we shall be disappointed if he does not make his mark as a politician and statesman. That he will win in the final election we have no doubt, because when "Took" goes in to win he generally does so.

It looks now like we are to have rain at last. Let us all join in wishing for a good downpour.

My selection of solid gold jewelry, such as brooches, cuff buttons, lockets, rings, etc., must be seen to be appreciated. W. H. Mueller.
DON'T forget the exchange that the ladies of Fairview church will hold in the little room next to M. D. Elmore's store, next Friday, Dec. 24.
AN apology is hereby made for giving so much of this issue to candidates' cards. We trust the card-writing stage of this campaign will end with this issue.
POSSUM SUPPER.—About 35 of the young men of the town enjoyed a 'possum supper at J. T. Jones' restaurant last night. It was a very enjoyable affair.
THE report that the springs at the water works had about exhausted is a false one, we are glad to say. Water will be turned on in the early morning and late afternoon as usual.
THE democratic county committee of Garrard elected Anderson Bolling, of Bryantsville, chairman, and G. Bright Swinebroad, of Lancaster, secretary. Good selections, both of them.

I WILL have no pets in the collection of taxes. If you wait until December 1st to get your tax receipt the six percent will be added, it matters not who you are. M. S. Baughman, sheriff.
We congratulate Mr. Henry Garten, of Bradfordsville, on winning the nomination for sheriff of Marion county. That he will make an ideal one none who know his true worth will doubt.
MR. G. A. MCROBERTS, formerly of this place, had the misfortune to lose the index finger of his right hand while working with a piece of machinery in his box factory at Covington. The finger next to it was badly lacerated.
THE opening of John P. Jones was largely attended and the beautiful things displayed were highly complimented. The good taste of Mr. Jones and his salesladies was the subject of much comment by the hundreds of ladies who were present.
TOM STRINGER, a farm hand working for H. J. Darst, lost control of the team he was driving on their becoming badly frightened, and they ran away striking some obstruction, breaking the neck of one of the horses and crippling the other so as to render him unfit for use.
We do not give it as a matter of fact to our Lincoln county readers, for they have heard scarcely anything else for months, but for the benefit of our "foreign" patrons we will state that a democratic primary will be held in this county next Saturday and the prospects are that it will be red-hot. There are several races which even a Philadelphia lawyer would have a hard time in surmising the result.
